

Incorporated in the year 2012, we, "Maa Tulja Bhavani", are reckoned as the leading organization engaged in manufacturing and exporting high performance array of All Types of Buffing Works, Fabrication Works, Precision Components, etc. The offered products are designed and manufactured in compliance with international quality standards utilizing quality approved raw material and innovative technology in our technically advance manufacturing unit under the guidance of our professionals. These products are widely acknowledged for sturdy construction, optimum functionality, superior performance and longer service life. Additionally, we offer our product range in various technical specifications in order to accomplish the various requirements of industry.

Located at Baroda(Gujarat, India), we have developed a infrastructural base that is systematically divided into various unit i.e procurement, production, quality control, administrative, research & development, sales & marketing and warehouse & packaging. All our units and equipped with all the essential tools, machine and technology in order to manufacture high performance range of industrial products. Furthermore, these units are handled by team of experts which in return gives us a competitive edge over our close competitors.

^

^

We have deployed a squad of engineers, technocrats and other professionals who are specialized in their respective field. With extensive market understanding and widespread domain acquaintance, we have managed to reach an invincible position in the industry. For enhancing the knowledge and skills of our team members, we organize regular skill development training sessions and workshops. Our skilled team of warehousing personnel takes preventative measures to assure that favourable environment is maintained to ensure protection of the products from all kinds of environmental hazards. Moreover, our packaging experts deliver the ordered consignments to the clients in excellent quality packaging material without affecting the quality standards.